

United Methodist Community House ADA COMPLAINT AND REASONABLE MODIFICATION POLICY

Title II and III of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA) provides that no entity shall discriminate against an individual with a disability in connection with the provision of transportation services. Title II of the ADA prohibits state and local governments from discriminating against people with disabilities. Title III establishes accessibility requirements for places of public accommodation. The law sets forth specific public transit requirements for vehicle and facility accessibility and the provision of service, including access to fixed route bus and complementary paratransit service. United Methodist Community House is committed to providing safe and reliable transportation to all people without discrimination.

The attached flyer (Attachment A) will be posted in all transit agency buses, facilities, and websites.

ADA COMPLAINTS

If United Methodist Community House receives a complaint regarding discrimination against an individual under the ADA, we will respond within 30-days of receiving the complaint and will work to resolve the issue with the complainant as quickly as possible. This may involve legal assistance and/or mediation. We will document the entire process, including the resolution, and notify the Michigan Department of Transportation (MDOT) Office of Passenger Transportation (OPT). We will keep the complaint and all related documents on file for at least one year. We will keep a summary of all complaints filed for at least five years. Records will be made available to MDOT OPT upon request.

REASONABLE MODIFICATIONS

Public agencies that provide designated public transportation shall make reasonable modifications in policies, practices, or procedures when the modifications are necessary to avoid discrimination on the basis of disability or to provide program accessibility to their services. This requirement applies to the means public entities use to meet their obligations under all provisions of the law.

In choosing among alternatives for meeting nondiscrimination and accessibility requirements with respect to new, altered, or existing facilities, or designated or specified transportation services, United Methodist Community House shall give priority to those methods that offer services, programs, and activities to qualified individuals with disabilities in the most integrated setting appropriate to the needs of individuals with disabilities.

Requests for modification of United Methodist Community House policies and practices may be denied only on one or more of the following grounds:

1. Granting the request would fundamentally alter the nature of the agency's services, programs, or activities.
2. Granting the request would create a direct threat to the health or safety of others.

3. Without the requested modification, the individual with a disability is still able to fully use the entity's services, programs, or activities for their intended purpose.

Basic process requirements that must be met are:

1. Information on the reasonable modification process must be readily available to the public and must be readily accessible
2. Advance notice can be required if feasible. Flexibility is also needed to handle requests that are only practicable on the spot.
3. Individuals requesting modifications are not required to use the term "reasonable modification."

What information should my reasonable modification request include?

1. Your full name, address, telephone number, and e-mail address where we can reach you during the day and evening.
2. The name of the party discriminated against, if known.
3. If the request is being made by someone else on behalf of the rider, please provide the advocate's name, relationship to the rider, and telephone number.
4. A description of the rider's disability or disabilities.
5. The service policy or procedure that may need to be modified to allow the rider full access to the transit services provided.
6. How the current service policy or program prevents the rider from using transit service.
7. A description of the specific modification to the current service policy or procedure that you are requesting.
8. Copies (not originals) of any required documentation of disability.

To guide you in providing the requested information, you may use the attached ADA reasonable modification request form. (Attachment C)

How do I request reasonable modification by email?

Include all of the information listed above, either in the body of the email or in an attachment. Attach relevant documents to your email. Send your request to toahinton@umchousegr.org. You will receive a reply email confirming that your request has been received within 48 business hours. Please keep a copy of your request and the reply email for your records. If you do not receive a reply email, please contact United Methodist Community House at 616-452-3226.

What happens after my request is received?

After the request is received, United Methodist Community House will provide a written response of approval or denial within seven days of its receipt.

How can I find out the status of my request?

We will review each request carefully. If you have not heard from us within seven days, please contact us at 616-452-3226.
